

Dear Chairman Powell and FCC Staff: Media consolidation is an ongoing threat to the free flow of ideas that a Democracy depends upon. Pappas Communications' Republican propaganda underwrite is the same form of naked political manipulation of the airwaves that has brought Sinclair so much notoriety. When will your Agency start using its regulatory muscle to assure a balanced emphasis on campaign issues instead of such blatantly partisan stunts?